

DAILY COURIER.

LOUISVILLE, KY.
SATURDAY MORNING—
NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE,
Of Kentucky.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GENERAL JOE LANE,
Of Oregon.

Democratic Electoral Ticket.

STATE AT LARGE:
GEORGE B. HODGE, of CANTRELL,
TIMOLEON CRAVEN, of ADAMS,
A. P. THOMPSON, of MCCRACKEN,
W. N. SWENSON, of DAVIES,
S. A. SAWYER, of JEFFERSON,
S. SAT. GAUTHIER, JR., of ADAMS,
M. R. HARDIN, of WASHINGTON,
J. M. COOPER, of KENTUCKY,
T. E. SIMHALI, of CITY OF LOUISVILLE,
S. G. JOHNSON, of COVINGTON,
W. E. ARTHUR, of KENTON.

Perhaps a fuller, fairer, or more satisfactory report of any speech given under similar circumstances than the Courier's report of Mr. BRECKINRIDGE's address at Lexington.

But as full as it is, it has an outline of his argument, and until the verbal report of what he said is published, that portion of the public who did not hear the speech can have no adequate cognizance of it. Nothing but a report so full as this report to Mr. BRECKINRIDGE; and we shall, at an early day, lay such a report before the country.

Douglas Elector.

We have had occasion to refer to the antecedents of some of the leading Douglass in our country, and shall do so far as our space will admit, without aspiring to the lead of what they claim to be the Democratic party, but impudently assuming to read such men as BRECKINRIDGE, POWELL, MAGOFFIN, Gen. BETTER, &c., out of the party, of which they have devolved the best of their lives.

In the discharge of this duty, never pleasant, we now beg to call attention to Col. WALTER CUTTER, Douglass elector for the Ninth Congressional District.

Col. CUTTER, we are free to admit, is an amiable, excellent gentleman in all his personal relations, but a good man, and a man of some ability, but as a Douglass he is deplorable, unreliable, and not worth a cent.

A Douglass, when we first remember him, was by no means remarkable for his support of the principles of his party; and for that reason alone, he was defeated a few years in an attempt to secure a nomination of the anti-Douglas party.

He is still a Douglass. The son of the knew nothing party, he left his old associates who remained faithful to the teachings of Clay, and rejoiced with his brethren of the secret order over the "mine" of both the corrupt old parties.

He was a Douglass.

In 1857, he was an aspirant for the Know Nothing nomination for the State Senate in the 10th district, and Col. CUTTER, his name was presented, in accordance with his wishes, to the Convention of that order which met at OUISPS on the 22d of May, we believe, in that year. The Convention did not accept him, but an active Oppositor also was on the ground, soon the nomination of the speaker was made by the regular party, and in a lower home does Mr. BRECKINRIDGE more justice than could be expected of what had only been the telegraphic report of the speaker.

The Douglass's letter from Lexington, dated Wednesday evening, says:

"In your office, the well known friend of Martin and myself, have just received a large and full copy of your notice of the speech you made at the regular meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, and I am sorry to say, too frequently misinterpreted as to facts, made this statement at second hand."

We remember to have read the report of the speech in question, in the Paris Flag, where it originally appeared, and in the New York Tribune, and to have been greatly surprised at the boldness and impudence of the author, and to have been equally surprised at the lead of what they claim to be the Democratic party, but impudently assuming to read such men as BRECKINRIDGE, POWELL, MAGOFFIN, Gen. BETTER, &c., out of the party, of which they have devolved the best of their lives.

In the discharge of this duty, never pleasant, we now beg to call attention to Col. WALTER CUTTER, Douglass elector for the Ninth Congressional District.

Col. CUTTER, we are free to admit, is an amiable, excellent gentleman in all his personal relations, but a good man, and a man of some ability, but as a Douglass he is deplorable, unreliable, and not worth a cent.

A Douglass, when we first remember him, was by no means remarkable for his support of the principles of his party; and for that reason alone, he was defeated a few years in an attempt to secure a nomination of the anti-Douglas party.

He is still a Douglass.

The son of the knew nothing party, he left his old associates who remained faithful to the teachings of Clay, and rejoiced with his brethren of the secret order over the "mine" of both the corrupt old parties.

He was a Douglass.

In 1857, he was an aspirant for the Know Nothing nomination for the State Senate in the 10th district, and Col. CUTTER, his name was presented, in accordance with his wishes, to the Convention of that order which met at OUISPS on the 22d of May, we believe, in that year. The Convention did not accept him, but an active Oppositor also was on the ground, soon the nomination of the speaker was made by the regular party, and in a lower home does Mr. BRECKINRIDGE more justice than could be expected of what had only been the telegraphic report of the speaker.

The Douglass's letter from Lexington, dated Wednesday evening, says:

"In your office, the well known friend of Martin and myself, have just received a large and full copy of your notice of the speech you made at the regular meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, and I am sorry to say, too frequently misinterpreted as to facts, made this statement at second hand."

We remember to have read the report of the speech in question, in the Paris Flag, where it originally appeared, and in the New York Tribune, and to have been greatly surprised at the boldness and impudence of the author, and to have been equally surprised at the lead of what they claim to be the Democratic party, but impudently assuming to read such men as BRECKINRIDGE, POWELL, MAGOFFIN, Gen. BETTER, &c., out of the party, of which they have devolved the best of their lives.

In the discharge of this duty, never pleasant, we now beg to call attention to Col. WALTER CUTTER, Douglass elector for the Ninth Congressional District.

Col. CUTTER, we are free to admit, is an amiable, excellent gentleman in all his personal relations, but a good man, and a man of some ability, but as a Douglass he is deplorable, unreliable, and not worth a cent.

A Douglass, when we first remember him, was by no means remarkable for his support of the principles of his party; and for that reason alone, he was defeated a few years in an attempt to secure a nomination of the anti-Douglas party.

He is still a Douglass.

The son of the knew nothing party, he left his old associates who remained faithful to the teachings of Clay, and rejoiced with his brethren of the secret order over the "mine" of both the corrupt old parties.

He was a Douglass.

In 1857, he was an aspirant for the Know Nothing nomination for the State Senate in the 10th district, and Col. CUTTER, his name was presented, in accordance with his wishes, to the Convention of that order which met at OUISPS on the 22d of May, we believe, in that year. The Convention did not accept him, but an active Oppositor also was on the ground, soon the nomination of the speaker was made by the regular party, and in a lower home does Mr. BRECKINRIDGE more justice than could be expected of what had only been the telegraphic report of the speaker.

The Douglass's letter from Lexington, dated Wednesday evening, says:

"In your office, the well known friend of Martin and myself, have just received a large and full copy of your notice of the speech you made at the regular meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, and I am sorry to say, too frequently misinterpreted as to facts, made this statement at second hand."

We remember to have read the report of the speech in question, in the Paris Flag, where it originally appeared, and in the New York Tribune, and to have been greatly surprised at the boldness and impudence of the author, and to have been equally surprised at the lead of what they claim to be the Democratic party, but impudently assuming to read such men as BRECKINRIDGE, POWELL, MAGOFFIN, Gen. BETTER, &c., out of the party, of which they have devolved the best of their lives.

In the discharge of this duty, never pleasant, we now beg to call attention to Col. WALTER CUTTER, Douglass elector for the Ninth Congressional District.

Col. CUTTER, we are free to admit, is an amiable, excellent gentleman in all his personal relations, but a good man, and a man of some ability, but as a Douglass he is deplorable, unreliable, and not worth a cent.

A Douglass, when we first remember him, was by no means remarkable for his support of the principles of his party; and for that reason alone, he was defeated a few years in an attempt to secure a nomination of the anti-Douglas party.

He is still a Douglass.

The son of the knew nothing party, he left his old associates who remained faithful to the teachings of Clay, and rejoiced with his brethren of the secret order over the "mine" of both the corrupt old parties.

He was a Douglass.

In 1857, he was an aspirant for the Know Nothing nomination for the State Senate in the 10th district, and Col. CUTTER, his name was presented, in accordance with his wishes, to the Convention of that order which met at OUISPS on the 22d of May, we believe, in that year. The Convention did not accept him, but an active Oppositor also was on the ground, soon the nomination of the speaker was made by the regular party, and in a lower home does Mr. BRECKINRIDGE more justice than could be expected of what had only been the telegraphic report of the speaker.

The Douglass's letter from Lexington, dated Wednesday evening, says:

"In your office, the well known friend of Martin and myself, have just received a large and full copy of your notice of the speech you made at the regular meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, and I am sorry to say, too frequently misinterpreted as to facts, made this statement at second hand."

We remember to have read the report of the speech in question, in the Paris Flag, where it originally appeared, and in the New York Tribune, and to have been greatly surprised at the boldness and impudence of the author, and to have been equally surprised at the lead of what they claim to be the Democratic party, but impudently assuming to read such men as BRECKINRIDGE, POWELL, MAGOFFIN, Gen. BETTER, &c., out of the party, of which they have devolved the best of their lives.

In the discharge of this duty, never pleasant, we now beg to call attention to Col. WALTER CUTTER, Douglass elector for the Ninth Congressional District.

Col. CUTTER, we are free to admit, is an amiable, excellent gentleman in all his personal relations, but a good man, and a man of some ability, but as a Douglass he is deplorable, unreliable, and not worth a cent.

A Douglass, when we first remember him, was by no means remarkable for his support of the principles of his party; and for that reason alone, he was defeated a few years in an attempt to secure a nomination of the anti-Douglas party.

He is still a Douglass.

The son of the knew nothing party, he left his old associates who remained faithful to the teachings of Clay, and rejoiced with his brethren of the secret order over the "mine" of both the corrupt old parties.

He was a Douglass.

In 1857, he was an aspirant for the Know Nothing nomination for the State Senate in the 10th district, and Col. CUTTER, his name was presented, in accordance with his wishes, to the Convention of that order which met at OUISPS on the 22d of May, we believe, in that year. The Convention did not accept him, but an active Oppositor also was on the ground, soon the nomination of the speaker was made by the regular party, and in a lower home does Mr. BRECKINRIDGE more justice than could be expected of what had only been the telegraphic report of the speaker.

The Douglass's letter from Lexington, dated Wednesday evening, says:

"In your office, the well known friend of Martin and myself, have just received a large and full copy of your notice of the speech you made at the regular meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, and I am sorry to say, too frequently misinterpreted as to facts, made this statement at second hand."

We remember to have read the report of the speech in question, in the Paris Flag, where it originally appeared, and in the New York Tribune, and to have been greatly surprised at the boldness and impudence of the author, and to have been equally surprised at the lead of what they claim to be the Democratic party, but impudently assuming to read such men as BRECKINRIDGE, POWELL, MAGOFFIN, Gen. BETTER, &c., out of the party, of which they have devolved the best of their lives.

In the discharge of this duty, never pleasant, we now beg to call attention to Col. WALTER CUTTER, Douglass elector for the Ninth Congressional District.

Col. CUTTER, we are free to admit, is an amiable, excellent gentleman in all his personal relations, but a good man, and a man of some ability, but as a Douglass he is deplorable, unreliable, and not worth a cent.

A Douglass, when we first remember him, was by no means remarkable for his support of the principles of his party; and for that reason alone, he was defeated a few years in an attempt to secure a nomination of the anti-Douglas party.

He is still a Douglass.

The son of the knew nothing party, he left his old associates who remained faithful to the teachings of Clay, and rejoiced with his brethren of the secret order over the "mine" of both the corrupt old parties.

He was a Douglass.

In 1857, he was an aspirant for the Know Nothing nomination for the State Senate in the 10th district, and Col. CUTTER, his name was presented, in accordance with his wishes, to the Convention of that order which met at OUISPS on the 22d of May, we believe, in that year. The Convention did not accept him, but an active Oppositor also was on the ground, soon the nomination of the speaker was made by the regular party, and in a lower home does Mr. BRECKINRIDGE more justice than could be expected of what had only been the telegraphic report of the speaker.

The Douglass's letter from Lexington, dated Wednesday evening, says:

"In your office, the well known friend of Martin and myself, have just received a large and full copy of your notice of the speech you made at the regular meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, and I am sorry to say, too frequently misinterpreted as to facts, made this statement at second hand."

We remember to have read the report of the speech in question, in the Paris Flag, where it originally appeared, and in the New York Tribune, and to have been greatly surprised at the boldness and impudence of the author, and to have been equally surprised at the lead of what they claim to be the Democratic party, but impudently assuming to read such men as BRECKINRIDGE, POWELL, MAGOFFIN, Gen. BETTER, &c., out of the party, of which they have devolved the best of their lives.

In the discharge of this duty, never pleasant, we now beg to call attention to Col. WALTER CUTTER, Douglass elector for the Ninth Congressional District.

Col. CUTTER, we are free to admit, is an amiable, excellent gentleman in all his personal relations, but a good man, and a man of some ability, but as a Douglass he is deplorable, unreliable, and not worth a cent.

A Douglass, when we first remember him, was by no means remarkable for his support of the principles of his party; and for that reason alone, he was defeated a few years in an attempt to secure a nomination of the anti-Douglas party.

He is still a Douglass.

The son of the knew nothing party, he left his old associates who remained faithful to the teachings of Clay, and rejoiced with his brethren of the secret order over the "mine" of both the corrupt old parties.

He was a Douglass.

In 1857, he was an aspirant for the Know Nothing nomination for the State Senate in the 10th district, and Col. CUTTER, his name was presented, in accordance with his wishes, to the Convention of that order which met at OUISPS on the 22d of May, we believe, in that year. The Convention did not accept him, but an active Oppositor also was on the ground, soon the nomination of the speaker was made by the regular party, and in a lower home does Mr. BRECKINRIDGE more justice than could be expected of what had only been the telegraphic report of the speaker.

The Douglass's letter from Lexington, dated Wednesday evening, says:

"In your office, the well known friend of Martin and myself, have just received a large and full copy of your notice of the speech you made at the regular meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, and I am sorry to say, too frequently misinterpreted as to facts, made this statement at second hand."

We remember to have read the report of the speech in question, in the Paris Flag, where it originally appeared, and in the New York Tribune, and to have been greatly surprised at the boldness and impudence of the author, and to have been equally surprised at the lead of what they claim to be the Democratic party, but impudently assuming to read such men as BRECKINRIDGE, POWELL, MAGOFFIN, Gen. BETTER, &c., out of the party, of which they have devolved the best of their lives.

In the discharge of this duty, never pleasant, we now beg to call attention to Col. WALTER CUTTER, Douglass elector for the Ninth Congressional District.

Col. CUTTER, we are free to admit, is an amiable, excellent gentleman in all his personal relations, but a good man, and a man of some ability, but as a Douglass he is deplorable, unreliable, and not worth a cent.

A Douglass, when we first remember him, was by no means remarkable for his support of the principles of his party; and for that reason alone, he was defeated a few years in an attempt to secure a nomination of the anti-Douglas party.

He is still a Douglass.

The son of the knew nothing party, he left his old associates who remained faithful to the teachings of Clay, and rejoiced with his brethren of the secret order over the "mine" of both the corrupt old parties.

He was a Douglass.

In 1857, he was an aspirant for the Know Nothing nomination for the State Senate in the 10th district, and Col. CUTTER, his name was presented, in accordance with his wishes, to the Convention of that order which met at OUISPS on the 22d of May, we believe, in that year. The Convention did not accept him, but an active Oppositor also was on the ground, soon the nomination of the speaker was made by the regular party, and in a lower home does Mr. BRECKINRIDGE more justice than could be expected of what had only been the telegraphic report of the speaker.

The Douglass's letter from Lexington, dated Wednesday evening, says:

"In your office, the well known friend of Martin and myself, have just received a large and full copy of your notice of the speech you made at the regular meeting of the

Miscellaneous.

CARTER & BUCHANAN,
DEALERS IN GARDEN AND GRASS SEEDS
And Manufactured
AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS,
Lousville, Ky.

A WORD TO FARMERS
In the best Manure-making and Manuring, in the best Manure spreader and Spreader, or those in John's Farmer's Patent Steel Spreader, which was patented in every particular. Price $100 high and all other articles, see our Catalogue.

Manufacturers between New York and Boston.

Antecedents for yourselves.

Dear Louisv. Hotel.

RARE CHANCE FOR
Bargains!

THE SUBSCRIBER WISHING TO REDUCE HIS

Large Stock of Ladies, Misses,
And Children's Gaiters.

BOOTEES & SLIPPERS,

ALL OF WHICH ARE OF HIS OWN MANUFACTURE.

And of the Best Quality,

WILL SELL THEM AT

VERY REDUCED PRICES

FOR CASH ONLY,

Until the 1st September,

AT THE OLD STAND, MAIN, NEAR THIRD

STREET.

D. MARSHALL.

Those in want of

BARGAINS!

Will do well to call on us.

FOR SALE.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL AND VALUABLE PROPERTIES UNKNOWN

HARRISBURG SPRINGS,

Louisa Co., Virginia. Replete with the most valuable mineral waters, and more recently known as West Branch of the Ohio River, Arkansas, consisting of about 20 acres, and situated on the highest point of land, commanding a wide view of the surrounding country, which will require passing and requires also some time to get to it. It is a fine building, surrounded by trees, and has a large garden.

It is a comfortable and commodious Hall Room.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

It is a fine house, and the rooms are spacious and comfortable.

